SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Elks' Play.

"The Return of Lem Littlefield or Weenie the Hound Dog's Revenge," a melodrama in one act, is the name of the play to be put on at the Elks' social session Tuesday night. The cast will be as follows: Mrs. Julia Davis, a retired bootlegger, . . . S. R. Bentley, Ma Littlefield, his woman, . . . Percy Byrd Elmly—the daughter, . . . Fleming Holden Lem, their son, . . . John Kane Waco, an officer, . . . D. B. Williams John and Clarence, minions of the law.

Synopsis—Christmas Eve—Wrapping the presents—the cry in the alley—the prodigal's return—the denunciation—"Ma take his feet"—shots in the night—the revenues are out—"Grab him boys"—the union card—Weenie's revenge.

To Entertain.

Miss Julia Davis will entertain a number of the college girls and boys from 8 to 11 o'clock Saturday evening in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Davis.

Entertain Friends.

Misses Irene and Helen Knox entertained a few friends Friday evening at a very enjoyable watch party.

Closing Cotillion.

The Assembly Club will give its closing cotillion before the Lenten season Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium of the Masonic temple. This will be the closing of the gaiety of the season, until the joyous Easter-tide when the club will issue invitations for an Easter ball to be given during Easter week.

Return Home.

Quite a party of Fairmont society guests spent Friday at the Waldo and returned home Saturday noon. Among whom were Mr. and Mrs. E. Blaine Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Chambers, Miss Sue Kearsley Watson, Frank Haymond and A. J. Colburn.

Miss Lynch Sings.

The Parkersburg State Journal contained the following Friday evening:

Mrs. John Harrison Rector entertained the members of the Beta Gamma class of the First Baptist Sunday school last evening at her home on Lynn street. The apartments were most attractively done in red and green, pine, Christmas bells, etc., being used profusely in the decorative scheme. A business session was held first during which the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Miss Vivian Beard; vice president, Mrs. John Rector; secretary, Miss Ada Kearns; and treasurer, Miss Laura Hamilton. A social hour followed during which a delightful musical program was rendered, a feature of this being the solos by Miss Beulah Lyon, of Clarksburg, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. E. Bartlett. Various diversions were enjoyed and at a suitable time a delightful refreshment course was served.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jenkins and family went Friday night to Baltimore where they will permanently reside. Mr. Jenkins has been in the employ of the Alexander and Alexander Insurance Company for five years and has opened an office in Baltimore where he will be a representative of the Alexander and Alexander firm.

Misses Susie Stealey and Mary Hansford have returned from Lancaster and Columbus, O., where they spent the Christmas holidays.

Dr. Herbert Atchison has returned from Washington.

A. B. Ford is here from Salem on a business visit.

William C. King, of Elkins, is a guest at the Hotel Gore.

H. A. Sybert is here from Wallace on a business visit.

H. M. Quick, of Parkersburg, is in the city looking after business affairs.

F. W. Siemens, of Tioga, is a city business visitor.

H. B. Hall is here from Salem.

H. D. Leach, of Parkersburg, is in the city on a business visit.

A. J. Colborn is here from Fairmont.

Mrs. C. H. Craig and Miss Daisy E. Craig of Summersville, are visitors here.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Pineapple Sponge.

Put over the fire to simmer the contents of a can of sherried pineapple with half a cup of water and one cup of sugar. When the fruit has simmered for about ten minutes add to it half an ounce or a little more of gelatin dissolved in a little hot water. Take off the fire and let cool rapidly. When it is cool beat into it the whipped whites of three eggs, pour into a mold and let stand about one and one-half hours, on ice, before serving.

Lemon Pie.

Rind and juice of one lemon, one cup sugar mixed with three table-spoons flour, pinch of salt; over the mixture pour two cups of boiling water and stir; when it is thickened add the yolks of two eggs. Have pie crust baked and pour in this filling; use white of eggs for top, using two heaping teaspoons of pulverized sugar and beating until stiff; place on pie and put in oven to brown.

MID-WINTER FURNITURE SALE

Purpose of Sale

Every up-to-date furniture store must occasionally dispose of goods at a loss. In the course of time odd pieces accumulate, some articles become slightly damaged, some lines go out of style, some are too expensive to sell readily, some discontinued and some arrive too late for the season. All such must be sold, and the sooner sold the less the loss. All furniture included in the above list has been marked with a red tag showing the reduced price in plain figures—many things at even

50 PER CENT REDUCTION

You may find in this reduced furniture just what you want and at less than factory prices. Our loss is your gain. We invite you to look.

WHAT THE SALE INCLUDES

This year our big sale is not limited to odds and ends, unsalable and discontinued patterns. With the exception of a few lines, all of our high grade furniture on the four floors of our big building is placed on sale for cash during the month of January at

25 PER CENT DISCOUNT

Never before have we made this unusual offer. Never have we put on sale our newest and most stylish furniture. It includes all wood beds, dressers, chiffoniers, wardrobes, plain and upholstered parlor chairs and rockers, buffets, tables, dining chairs, china closets, parlor suites, library tables, davenports and dozens of other things which will be listed and priced later.

This sale will make room for our new spring lines which our buyer is now selecting at the Chicago and Grand Rapids markets.
